Beate Gloeckner is a German teacher who started her meditation practice in 1986 and has a long experience of retreats in the Mahasi tradition under the guidance of Ven. U-Pandita and Ven. U-Vivekananda, who authorized her to give teachings. Thanks to her training as a psychotherapist, she belongs to that new generation of teachers that can pass on ancient teachings in such a way that western yogis will still find them meaningful for their lives.

Hannes Huber, is an experienced teacher who has practiced Vipassana Meditation since 1985. His teachers include Godwin Samararatne from Sri Lanka, and Sayadaw U Pandita from Burma, who authorized him to give teachings. He has a training in Psychosynthesis with Sascha Dönges, Switzerland. He teaches Vipassana Meditation in Austria and other European countries, and is an MBSR trainer.

Ven. Vivekananda is the resident teacher of Panditarama Lumbini International Meditation Centre in Nepal. He has trained under the Ven. Sayadaw U Panditabhivamsa since 1988 and has been teaching Vipassana in the Mahasi tradition and Loving kindness meditation at his center in Lumbini as well as abroad since 1998. With his profound knowledge of the Dhamma and his enthusiastic manner, yogis feel inspired and encouraged to progress in their practice.

July 8 - 23
Patricia Feldman e Charles Genoud
Vipassana e Metta retreat

During this retreat meditators will have a chance to deepen their understanding of insight practice, developing mindfulness of the mind and the body, contemplating their aspects and exploring their qualities in each moment. As wisdom unfolds, the nature of experience will reveal itself enabling a powerful inner transformation. The emphasis of the retreat will also invite participants to trust in what lies beneath the surface of habitual tendencies, gently opening and relaxing the heart through the cultivation of loving-kindness. This silent retreat will offer the support of instructions, private interviews and Dharma talks. The practice of Metta (loving-kindness) enriches

Vipassana meditation by the breadth and lightness of mind that it can bring. The cultivation of qualities such as kindness and compassion enables an attitude for self-acceptance and openess for oneself and others that can attain a state of unconditional love and peace. The retreat is in English with Italian translation. The retreat will be divided into two periods: July 8 -16 and July 16 - 23

You can join the retreat only on July 8 and 16.20 places will be set aside for those yogis who sign up for the whole period.

The retreat begins al 7pm on the first day (check-in between 2 and 5 p.m.) and ends with lunch on the last day.

Patricia Genoud-Feldman has been practicing Buddhist meditation (Vipassana and Dzogchen) in Asia and the West since 1984. She received numerous teachings from Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche and practiced under the guidance of Sayadaw Upandita. She has also completed her teacher training at the Insight Meditation Society in Barre, MA. USA under the guidance of Joseph Goldstein and other senior teachers. She has been teaching Vipassana meditation since 1997 in Europe, Israel and the US.

Charles Genoud has studied Buddhism in both Theravada and Tibetan traditions. For several years he was a student of the Venerable Geshe Rabten and then of Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche. He has practiced Vipassana meditation with Goenka and then in the Mahasi tradition, with Sayadaw Upandita, , Sayadaw U Indaka, Joseph Goldstein ans Sharon Salzberg.

Charles Genoud teaches Buddhist meditation and leads workshops in France, the USA, Israel, Italy and Switzerland. He is one of the founders as well as guiding teacher of the Vimalakirti Meditation Centre in Geneva, Switzerland (www.vimalakirti.org).

August 23 – September 18
Brother Dassana
Satipatthana Vipassana retreat

After assisting Bhante Sujiva in the August retreat Bro. Dassana, an experienced and knowledgeable Dhamma teacher from Malaysia, will continue to guide those yogis who wish to deepen their practice in an intensive retreat, but also to introduce the practice of meditation to beginners. His approach is in line with the Mahasi tradition. There will be 3 talks and 2 to 3 interviews a week, depending on the needs of the yogis.

The participation to this period will be flexible in terms of length of stay and schedule, but it's necessary to participate for at least one week. We ask yogis to arrive on a week-end, for organizational reasons.

Bro. Dassana has been practising Vipassana Meditation for over 20 years. He has done many years of retreats in Burma, Thailand and Malaysia under various teachers. Most of his retreats are in the Mahasi style, though he has also explored other traditions. He was a monk for 17 years, and this gave him the opportunity and time to study the Dhamma scriptures and to do long intensive Vipassana retreats.

SOME USEFUL INFORMATION ABOUT OUR RETREATS

- The suggested participation fee for the retreats is 30 euros a day for room and board; the fee should be considered as a free contribution by members to support the Association, and covers the expenses of the organization and management of the Centre. It's possible to ask for sponsorships, or give a contribution based on one's financial possibilities; this should be agreed upon with the manager, prior to the retreat.
- There is no reimbursment of the fee in case of cancellation or anticipated departure once the retreat has started.
- The Dhamma teachings are offered free of charge, but we encourage participants to show gratitude with a generous donation to the teacher.
- Please consider a small donation for the pick-up service from the bus stop.
- You can find information about formal retreats and how to reach the centre on our Web site www.piandeiciliegi.it
- You can also download audio files of the latest retreats from our web site.
